Spend a quarter, a semester or a year in Buenos Aires earning college credits while experiencing the city’s rich cultural life.
University of CEMA

The University of CEMA is a private university formally recognized by the Ministry of Education of Argentina. We are a small, boutique, highly specialized university offering undergraduate and graduate programs in the areas of business, finance, economics, systems engineering and political science.

Key Differentiating Factors

International Accreditation: Our MBA program is recognized by AMBA (The Association of MBAs, UK) since 2000

Local Ranking: UCEMA has been positioned as No 1 or 2 in Argentina, as per a Ranking made by Deloitte. This positioning includes the undergraduate programs in Business and Economics, and the graduate programs in Business (MBA), Finance, and Economics.

Commitment to Research and Teaching: teaching and research are core activities at UCEMA, integrated and taken seriously. We have a large staff of full time professors, devoted to teaching and research. Our research history is evidenced by our publications; the Journal of Applied Economics; Revista Analysis; and our Working Papers.

Integration of Theory and Practice: UCEMA programs prepare people for action. Students are trained in the latest theories and models, seen as valuable tools that can be used to analyze and solve applied problems.

Relevance and Institutional Impact: our students are trained on issues that are key to pursue transformational leadership roles, and leave UCEMA prepared to have an impact in their community. UCEMA itself as an institution and many of its faculty have played transformational leadership roles in the community. So have our alumni.

Education Impact on Career Development: our educational programs are known to improve and broaden a person’s possibilities of employment.

Academic Freedom: we are firm believers in hiring the best faculty and encouraging them to do what they know, in the framework of the highest standards of academic freedom. UCEMA is located in downtown Buenos Aires, at the heart of the financial and cultural activity of the city.

Undergraduate Study Abroad Program

Our especially designed Study Abroad Program is intended for third or fourth year undergraduates and offers a wide range of English-speaking and Spanish-speaking courses in the areas of Economics, Business, Political Science, Marketing and International Relations. As this extensive core curriculum is also offered to our undergraduates, it guarantees a truly multi-cultural academic experience. The program also offers exclusive classes such as Spanish Language and Argentinian culture to enhance the understanding of local traditions and idiosyncrasies.

Course Offerings

Students participating in the Undergraduate Study Abroad Program are allowed to take up to five courses during their four month stay. Each course requires between 3 and 5 hours a week of classes and includes a final exam. Of our ample course offerings, we highly recommend the following:

Undergraduate (Spanish)

• Comparative Political Systems
• Decision Theory
• Development Theory
• Financial Calculus
• History II
• Human Resources Management
• International Business
• Labor Economics
• Leadership
• Macroeconomics I
• Marketing
• Microeconomics I
• Organization Theory
• Strategic Management
• Topics of World Politics
• Spanish Language Classes (Elementary, Intermediate)

Through a communicative approach, these courses provide students with a direct and interactive way of achieving conversation and fluency.

For a full listing of courses and their descriptions, please refer to our web page: www.ucema.edu.ar/study-abroad-program
MBA Study Abroad Program

Our MBA Study Abroad Program, intended for advanced MBA students, offers a wide range of both English-speaking and Spanish-speaking courses in key areas of management such as Decision Making, Marketing, Strategy, and so on. Study Abroad MBA students share these classes with local MBAs, thus guaranteeing a truly multi-cultural academic experience.

Course Offerings

MBA students participating in the Study Abroad Program are allowed to take up to three courses during their one quarter stay. Each course involves one weekly class of 3 hours during twelve weeks, and includes a final exam.

MBA Classes (English)
• Marketing Communications
• Business Environment in Latinamerica
• Business and Politics: National and International Perspectives
• Practical Application of International Financial Markets

MBA Classes (Spanish)
• Economic Analysis of Non-Conventional Markets
• Leadership
• Corporate Finance
• Entrepreneurship
• Strategic Management

For a full listing of courses and their descriptions, please refer to our web page www.ucema.edu.ar/study-abroad-program

Professors

Most of the classes are delivered by full-time professors with Ph.D.’s awarded by the most prestigious universities worldwide. Full-time professors are renowned researchers, and as such, they are on the verge of knowledge in their areas of expertise. Our part-time professors combine outstanding experience and leadership as executives or consultants in first-class companies, with a clear vision about their daily activities and a life dedicated to the study of their areas of expertise.

Study Abroad Program

Undergraduate Eligibility
To be considered for Study Abroad in Buenos Aires at UCEMA you must:
- be an undergraduate student at a recognized institution in your home country;
- have completed or foresee completing the equivalent of two years of university level education before departure
- have a strong academic background with a minimum Grade Point Average of 2.4 on a 4.0 scale.
All candidates are considered on individual merit and in accordance with equal opportunities policy.

Undergraduate Program dates
March – July Deadline to Apply November 15th
August – December Deadline to Apply June 1st

MBA Eligibility
To be considered for the MBA Study Abroad at UCEMA you must:
- be an MBA student enrolled at a recognized institution in your home country.
- have completed or foresee completing the equivalent of the first year of a standard two-year MBA program before departure.
- have a strong academic background as evidenced by transcript of grades from MBA studies.
All candidates are considered on individual merit and in accordance with equal opportunities policy.

MBA Program dates
Quarter September-December Deadline to Apply - June 15th

Buenos Aires
Buenos Aires is a singular, open and integrating destination that allows the visitor not only to view the city but also to live an exceptional urban adventure. Because Buenos Aires combines varied experiences and this variety may suit all tastes. It is a megalopolis with over twelve million inhabitants in both the city and its surroundings. It has its own personality, open to the world’s architecture, culture and art. Cosmopolitan and contradictory: dynamic and traditional, historical and avant-garde, Buenos Aires has managed to preserve old traditions and loving corners. – BA is really close to any visitor.

STAFF INTERNATIONAL PROGRAMS
Admissions
For further information please contact:
Facundo Grosso: fbgrossof@ucema.edu.ar
Mayra De Laurentiis: mayra@ucema.edu.ar
Study Abroad Coordinators • exchange@ucema.edu.ar
5411-6314-3031/33 • www.ucema.edu.ar